Theme is "YOUR SAFETY, JUST A CLICK AWAY: REPORT TO PVPI"

This National Pharmacovigilance Week will be celebrated under the aegis of the Pharmacovigilance Programme of India (PvPI), coordinated by the Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India.

To mark the spirit of this important initiative, we are organizing few activities in this week as per the following schedule:

Date	Programme	Venue
17 th Sept. 25	Inauguration Ceremony	Department of Pharmacology 10AM Onward
18 th Sept. 25	Nukkad Natak	Hospital Reception Area 11AM onward
19 th Sept. 25	Community Awareness Programme	RHTC, Dhaulana 10AM Onward
22 nd Sept. 25	Sensitization Programme for Interns & PGs	LT-2, First floor, Academic Block 2:30PM Onwards
23 rd Sept. 25	Poster Competition	Department of Pharmacology 12PM Onward

- This celebration aims to enhance awareness and strengthen the culture of medication safety in the country by monitoring drug safety through Adverse drug reactions reporting thereby reducing the risks associated with the use of medicines.
- A special request to all the Head of the departments to please make your Interns and at least first year residents free for awareness session on 22nd Sept. 25 at 2:30pm. We are going to give them hands on training on how to correctly fill the latest ADR Reporting Form.
- Thankful to all the contributors and our leadership team of GS Medical College for their support.
- Please feel free to join in for any event as per your convenience.
